The conceptual cornerstone

IMPRINT+ is based on three main ideas that act as guidelines and building blocks for the project's philosophy, objectives and methodology: Learn. Act. Connect.

What is IMPRINT+?

IMPRINT+ is an international project that aims at the promotion of an ecological reasoning based on the changing power of local community and on the participation, empowerment and entrepreneurship of young European citizens.

The project's motto is that each person has an ecological footprint that should be compensated for the sake of the ecological, social and economic balance.

Pilot project

Our pilot project involves a small-scale trial at the Municipality of Lousede, Portugal. This pilot program is focused on testing the ecological evaluation and compensation methodologies. This program involves the local administration, schools and the community.

The territory of Lousede is being characterized with inventories of fauna, flora and habitats. Also, we are surveying degraded areas needing ecological restoration and threatened high-value areas for conservation.

Participants in the pilot project (students, teachers, youth workers, etc) will be invited to use IMPRINT+ tools (web app) to evaluate their individual or collective footprint. After becoming aware of their impact in the planet, participants will be invited to collaborate in the ecological restoration of degraded areas (e.g. through reforestation, the building of wildlife shelters or collecting waste), or contributing to the preservation of threatened species or habitats. This pilot program will help to test and tune the integrated use of the different IMPRINT+ tools! Take a look at Lousede's rich fauna, flora and habitats, and what we have been doing there!

European Commission selects IMPRINT+ as a reference project in Entrepreneurship Education

11/08/2018

IMPRINT+ 'Imprinting an ecological compensation reasoning on society by means of young citizens' Project was selected by the European Commission to integrate a working group devoted to Entrepreneurship Education. The project consists of an international strategic partnership for School Education, funded by the Erasmus + program.

With less than a year, IMPRINT+ has been positioning itself as a reference project in the fields of environmental education and citizen participation in the various countries of the consortium. Now it was the European Commission itself, which finances the project through the Erasmus + program, to recognize its relevance in the area of Youth Entrepreneurship.

Aiming to foster international cooperation for the establishment of best practices in various areas, the European Commission regularly opens collaborative platforms for which relevant project leaders are selected. The newest working group of the "School Education Gateway" platform is dedicated to Entrepreneurship Education, and IMPRINT+ has been selected to take part.

The IMPRINT+ Project aims to promote environmentally responsible behavior through gaming and educational competitions. The primary target audience are children and youngsters, but the messages are aimed at society as a whole, assuming the mobilizing power of the youngest towards behavioral changes. The innovative character of the project is related to its multidisciplinary approach and the fact of combining the conservation of natural resources and environmental education with green entrepreneurship. "How can I create my own job while protecting nature? What green economy opportunities are there for young Europeans? How to value natural capital at a local level?" are some of the questions that IMPRINT+ will address, and earned the project the recognition by the European Commission.

How to compensate?

To compensate your impact, every year, you should plant 8 native tree(s)!

The burning of fossil fuels, such as gasoline or diesel, emits greenhouse gases. Trees sequester the CO2. Plant trees and reduce the impact of the energy you consume. Whenever possible, use public transportation and non-motorized vehicles.
